

Call for Submissions

Advances in Management & Ethics Research (AMER) is now accepting submissions for the inaugural volume (expected Fall 2022 online publication date).

AMER will serve as a leading publication of cutting-edge business practitioner perspectives on management and ethics. The purpose of AMER is to advance knowledge and business practice by inspiring, promoting, and supporting a dialogue of innovation and change in management and ethics.

AMER welcomes submissions on a broad array of topics related to the fields of management and ethics, including leadership, organizational behavior, sustainable resource use, hiring practices, diversity, equity and inclusion in the workplace, health and safety, and workplace privacy, among others. Business case studies, analyses on emerging developments, and perspective pieces are welcome.

Submissions will undergo a double-blind, peer-review process. AMER will strive to provide authors with a publication decision within 6 – 8 weeks of submission. Submissions received by June 1st, 2022 will be given priority consideration for publication in the inaugural volume.

Please direct submissions to AMERSubmissions@udmercy.edu.

For more information, including all formatting and submission guidelines, please visit the AMER website here.

AMER is supported by the Center for Practice & Research in Management & Ethics (PRIME Center) housed in the College of Business Administration at the University of Detroit Mercy.
