INTRODUCTION

There appears to be sufficient interest to move forward with our proposed meeting. There is not only interest among those who will attend, but also on the part of many others who will be part of our program in 1997 and desire an appropriate organization. The interest is from the US and other countries. Note again the objectives of the meeting in Los Angeles. First, we wish to begin to set the agenda for the intersection of Christian Social Thought and Business Education in a Catholic University. Second, building on this dialogue we wish to begin the detailed planning for a summer 1997 conference of about four or five days on the subject and begin generating the papers for such a conference. Third, we wish to begin thinking about the formation of an organization for those scholars interested in the topics.

AGENDA AND FORMAT

Attached you will find the tentative agenda and format for the meeting. Note that we will start on Saturday morning, July 27, 1996 and conclude with lunch on the 27th. All are invited to the opening of the Dean's meeting and Mass at 4:00 p.m.

COST, REGISTRATION AND OTHER DETAILS

There is no charge for the meeting except for those meals when the participants are on their own. Most of the sessions will be in the Airport Marina Hotel. We have a block of rooms held for us at the rate of $55 for singles and $60 for doubles plus 14 percent tax. Please register directly with the hotel using the attached forms.

WHO IS INVITED

We urge any of the deans who will be at the IAJBS Forum to join us. But, in particular, we ask as many schools as possible to fund and send a faculty member interested in joining Christian Social Thought in both scholarship and teaching.

FURTHER INFORMATION
