

Jesuit Schools of Business: Leveraging Our Competitive Strengths

Panel Sessions for Saturday Morning 11-Jul-98

Panel Number One

9:30 - 10:30 a.m.

Ethical Frameworks for Business Education

Name	University	Title
Dr. David Arnesen	Seattle University	Facilitator
Dr. Catharyn Baird	Regis College	"Ethics and Organizational Strategies"
Dr. Paul Buller	Gonzaga University	"Considering Personal & Organizational Values"
Dr. Gene Lacznik	Marquette University	"Integrating and Implementing Ethics at Catholic Schools"
Dr. Manny Velásquez	Santa Clara University	"Ethics"

Panel Number Two

10:45 - 11:45 a.m.

Service Learning: Cornerstone of Jesuit Education

Name	University	Title
Dr. Suzanne Erickson	Seattle University	Facilitator
Dr. John Kohls	Gonzaga University	"Service Learning at Gonzaga U."
Dr. Karen Brown	Seattle University	"The Community Service Project Management Course"
Dr. Susan Weihrich	Seattle University	"VITA: Volunteer Income Tax Assistance"
Dr. George Hess	Loyola Marymount	"The Stewardship Institute at LMU"

Jesuit Schools of Business: Leveraging Our Competitive Strengths

Friday Afternoon Paper Sessions

Session Chair: Dr. Barbara Parker, Seattle University

Name	Time	University	Title
Dr. Michael Cavanaugh	1:00 - 1:30	Fairfield University	"Head Games: Introducing Tomorrow's Business Elites to Institutionalized Inequality"
Dr. Jim Hall	1:45 - 2:15	Santa Clara University	"Undergraduate 3 Themes CCC"
Dr. Bill Martello	2:30 - 3:00	Loyola Marymount	"Social Responsibility and Successful Entrepreneurship"
Dr. Stephen Porth	3:15 - 3:45	St. Joseph University	"Service Learning in the Business School"
Dr. Harriet Stephenson	4:00 - 4:30	Seattle University	"Business Students' Perceptions of Real World Ethics: Some Disconcerting Findings"